

EIZO UK and Jigsaw Systems Ltd exclusive announcement

EIZO the dedicated monitor manufacturer is delighted to confirm that specialist reseller Jigsaw Systems Ltd has become an EIZO Authorised Partner. This new partnership allows the two companies to work more closely together supplying graphics professionals with the latest specialist EIZO ColorEdge monitors.

Colin Woodley, Product Manager EIZO comments, "We are extremely pleased to announce this new relationship with Jigsaw systems. Both parties currently provide specialist products and services to all sectors of the creative markets and with Jigsaw's expertise, the EIZO team is assured that the strong established brand EIZO has created in the design and media market will only increase."

Stuart Lush, Strategic Business Manager for Jigsaw adds, "At Jigsaw we pride ourselves in only supplying the leading products for creative professionals, and feel excited that the combination of EIZO and Jigsaw will be a popular one with our customers."

EIZO ColorEdge graphics monitors feature hardware calibration for professionals in graphics arts, printing, digital photography and other fields requiring exceptional colour management performance.

The latest edition to the EIZO ColorEdge LCD range, the CG301W will be unveiled at this years Focus on Imaging Exhibition on EIZO's stand C3. The 30-inch LCD includes several high-end features such as a wide colour gamut, 12-bit hardware calibration, and picture-by-picture suitable for a wide range of professional graphics applications such as digital photography and soft proofing.
